MESSAGE

Vishu festival heralds the beginning of Malayalam new year. The cultural amalgam of our nation is visible on that day, when Punjab celebrates the Baisakhi, Assam Celebrates Bihu and Bengal celebrates Naba Barsha.

I wish the Malayalees, Bengalis, Punjabis and Assemese living across the globe in general and living in this Union Territory in particular a very happy and prosperous year ahead. I also extend my wishes to the people of Puducherry on this auspicious occasion.
