

GOVERNMENT OF PUDUCHERRY
LT. GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT

No.LGS/2017

March 26, 2017

PRESS RELEASE

67th Weekend Morning Field Visit of Hon'ble Lt. Governor

Today's Raj Nivas Morning round was wholesome. It covered a home for children + visit to Police Station. Both led to new ideas for implementation.

....Tweet of Hon'ble Lt. Governor, Dr. Kiran Bedi.

Bicycling from Raj Nivas, Hon'ble Lt. Governor, Dr. Kiran Bedi visited Children Home at Kalapet and the Muthialpet Police Station on the 67th weekend morning round

At the Children's Home, Hon'ble Lt. Governor suggested that the training imparted to the Children should be gender inclusive. Girls and Boys ought to be taught all skills instead of orienting them to gender specific tasks. There should be intermingling of skills learnt by boys and girls. The glass ceiling will have to be broken for the girls to become courageous.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor suggested that the Home should have linkage for skill development of E-skills such as DTP, Animations, Software codes etc. for the children to become able designers, software engineers etc. The Home was also advised to create a Computer Lab and to use the Portal of "SWAYAM" recently launched by Ministry of Human Resource Development that offers 350 online courses.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor thereafter made a surprise visit to Muthialpet Police Station, where Shir Rajiv Ranjan SSP (L&O) received her. Hon'ble Lt. Governor noted that the system of Beat Officer had taken its full shape and apart from the designated Beat Officers, the other police personnel were also deployed to strengthen the system. Hon'ble Lt. Governor appreciated the Police for their periodical meetings that they were holding with Resident Welfare Associations, Market Associations, Fishermen Villages and the Students and Friends of Police and good use of Information Technology tools for internal communications. They have been advised now to expand this to public to keep them notified of policing matters.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor also observed enroute that the Tamil Nadu pocket of Bommayarpalayam and Auroville beach that has a large number of tourist influx needs to be secured by having Tamil Nadu and Puducherry Beach outposts. The Police should work in tandem with the Coastal community to strengthen the security in the interspersed Tamilnadu area.

Hon'ble Lt. Governor was accompanied by Team Raj Nivas, Shri R. Sridharan, Private Secretary to Lt. Governor, Shri Praveen Tripathi, ADC to Lt. Governor and the Police Officers led by Shri S. Venkatasamy, Supdt of Police (East) during the above visit.